"The Evening World" Baseball Bulletin

WILL REPRODUCE THE

GIANTS' GREAT GAME AT ST. GEORGE.

EVERYSODY IS INVITED.

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

GRACE CHURCH TO-DAY. Flowers Sent by President Harrison and Secretary Blaine-Gen. Sherman, Walker Blaine, Channey M. Depew and Pierre Lorillard Among the Pall-Bearers-The

Not many men passing away at the age of thirty-six years, while his life has not quite reached its prime, are honored as was Allen

Remains Taken to Mount Auburn for Thorndike Rice to-day. It was a most notable gathering of the naion's great men which assembled to-day at Grace Church to pay the last tribute to the young Minister to Russia. The remains of Mr. Rice were placed in a easket of solid rosewood last evening after an autopsy conducted by Drs. E. L. Keyes, E. G. Janeway, E. K. Dunham, E. Fuller, Henry Goldthwaite and E. H. Ettwood, at he apartments of the dead man, at the Fifth he apartments of the dead man, at the Firth Avenue Hotel. The physicians set at rest all doubt as to the cause of the sudden demise of Mr. Rice. It was cedema of both lungs, and there was no help for its victim.

The body was taken to the home of ex-Mayor Cooper, Waverley place and Fifth avenue, and it lay in the east parlor of the stately mansion and was viewed by many prominent people of this city.

The casket was covered with Easter lillies, white roses, lillies of the valley and their foliage. On the plate was this inscription:

CHARLES ALLEN THORNDINE RICE. Born June 18, 1853. Died May 16, 1889.

The handsome, dark face of the dead looked exactly as in life. Sargeant, Mr. Rice's valet for twenty years, was almost overcome as he looked upon the face of his dead master.

This morning there came beautiful floral tributes from a hundred sources. Among the senders were President Harrison, Secretary and Mrs. Blaine, Countess and Miss de Barries, W. W. Astor, Pierre Lorillard, sr., Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Blanche Roosevelt, Mrs. Hillier, F. Grey Griswold and Miss M. Taylor.

At 9.30 o'clock the remains were placed in placed in a plain black hearse, drawn by a team of black horses, and were conveyed to Grace Church, followed by five carriages occupied as follows:

William B. Rice, the uncle of the deceased, 1. William B. Rice, the side of the and his family.
2. James Parker, Charles V. Cutting and Dr.

2. James Parker, Charles v. Cutting and Spiller.
3. Mrs. Edward Cooper and daughters.
4. Mr. Churchman and others.
5. Sarge ant, Mr. Rice's valet, and Crisp, what was different to the function of the church was thronged with people when the funeral procession arrived. The casket was carried up the centre aisle and placed upon a bier. It was followed by the pallbearers.

Vine President Morton and Walker Blaine,

Vice President Morton and Walker Blaine, who came in place of his father, the Score-tary of State, who is ill, came first; then grizzled and gray Gen. William T. Sherman, with Chauncey M. Depew, followed by W. W. Astor and Pierre Lorillard, sr.; ex-Mayor Cooper, William Jay and William P. Doug-

The simple burial service was celebrated by Bishop Potter, assisted by Rev. Dr. Hunt-ington and Rev. George H. Bottome, of Grace Church, Bishop Potter reading the

The casket, after the service, was placed upon a bier in the vestibule of the church and the audience viewed the remains as they passed out and into the whirl of Broadway again.

Among those present were: Col. Robert G. Ingersoll, the venerable David Dudley Field, S. L. M. Barlow, George W. Lyon, Collector Joel B. Erhardt, Gen. Joseph C. Jackson. Joseph C. Jackson.
Assistant Secretary Cyrus Bussy, of the Interior Department; J. Colaman Drayton, with Mrs. William Astor; Thomas Mitchell, Dr. A. W. Thompson, Marvelle W. Cooper,
Appraiser of Customs; Thomas Hitchcock, Assemblyman Robert Ray Hamilton, Park Commissioner J. Hampden, Robb, Paul Dana, ex-Judge Fitch, Mrs.
William Jaffray and Mrs. Sargeant, exAlderman Van Rensselaer, Austin Corbin, W. J. Florence, George Blias, the banker;
et-Senator Robert Adams, of Pennsylvania;
Lieut. Allen Paul, U. S. N.; ex-Senator
Thomas C. Platt and Mrs. Platt; S. Nicholson Kane, and Clarence Buel, of the Century.
The editorial and other employees of the North American Review and the Century occupled seats reserved for them in the middle pled seats reserved for them in the middle

The remains were placed in the mortuary of The remains were placed in the mortuary of Grace Church temporarily, and will finally be laid beside the grave of the father of the dead minister in Mount Auburn, near Bostoni, Mr. Cotting, Mr. Rice's legal and financial adviser, declines to say whether the deceased left a will or not, but it is believed that he was a most methodical business man.

Lloyd S. Bryce, the bosom friend of Mr. Rice, and his literary co-worker for years, will conduct the Review, in accordance with will conduct the Review, in accordance the expressed wishes of his dead friend.

Mr. Allen's Free Dinners-Nellie Bly in THE SUNDAY WORLD.

Baseball To-Day.

THE LEAGUE. Pittsburg and New York at Staten Island. Cleveland at Boston. Indianapolis at Philadelphia. Chicago at Washington.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION. ooklyn at St. Louis. pletics at Kansas City. timore at Cincinnati. umbus at Louisville. ATLANTIC ASSOCIATION.

Jersey City at Worcester, Newark at Lowell. Wilkesbarre at New Haven. Easton at Hartford.

Baseball Standings of This Morning.

Too Many Girls and No Men at the Water he Places. Road THE SUNDAY WORLD.

Buck Ache Cured by Carter's

DID NOT TAKE THE TRAIN.

been working away at the Mary Tobin mystery for nearly a week, they are as much in the dark been made. When the first examination was o slip out.

r. Bryan said he walked to the station with s Tobin on the night of April 15. That was last time she was seen alive by any of her the last time she was seen alive by any of her friends.

Miss McTammany, the ticket agent at West Brighton, is positive that Miss Tobin did not pass the ticket box that night.

The reason she feels so sure of it is that because on the previous Saturday night when Miss Tobin went to New York she left packages and an umbrella to be called for, which Miss McTammany returned to her. She thinks that had Miss Tobin passed her that night she would have made a note of it.

The body was removed to McKeesport last night. The Coroner's inquest will be continued on Monday night.

What Will the Poor Girls Do Without Young Men at the Summer Resorts SUNDAY WORLD

Generous Conduct of the Victim's Father on Hearing a Mother's Appeni.

Detective Willard, of Capt. Reilly's police sta tion, went this morning to 201 West Twenty-sixth street to arrest the fifteen-year-old son of Mrs. Moore on a charge of stabbing his playmate, William Hill.

Drum Major John A. Hill, the father of the miured boy, went along to identify the prisoner.
The boys were both pupils in Grammar School 28 in West Thirtieth street. They had both been given a task to perform. Young Hill was the first to get through and Moore at once, "oribbed" it. Willie did not care to share the honors with any one. He told his teacher of the incident.

The Right Style and Color in Summer Vests-In THE SUNDAY WORLD.

To Celebrate Memorial Day. The Memorial Committee are making arrange ments to fittingly celebrate Memorial Day. The Metropolitan Opera-House has been engaged for the evening and an entertaining programme is promised. The list of volunteers include some of the best known theatrical lights.

'Twill Be a Good Three-Mile Heat. A $25 forfeit has been posted by Mr. F. P. Galiagher and Mr. William B. Brown, proprietor of Brown's Cottage, to trot a three-mile heat from Prospect Park to the three-mile stone on the Boulevard, at 10 A. M., May 28. Stakes $200 a side.

Penniless Noblemen Laboring in New ork. Read THE SUNDAY WORLD

Actors at the Bat. The Broadway Theatre nine and the " County Fair" nine played ball yesterday afternoon at Allerton Park, Weehawken, N. J. The feature of the game was the battery work of Powers and Copens. The County Fair nine played a great game. The score was County Fair, 29: Broadway Theatre 4. The County Fair nine play the Allerton Baseball Club to-morrow afterneon at Allerton Park, Weehawken, N. J. Game called at 3, 20.

Minister Mutsu, of the Japanese Legation bell, of this city, was a passenger of the Chi-cago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road last Feb ruary. She was the only occupant of a Pullman sleeper, aside from the porter, who made an at sleeper, aside from the porter, who made an attempt at assault. For two months Mrs. Campbell was confined to her bed by the shock, and at times her resson was dethroned. To-day she filed a suit against the Pullman Palace Car Company for $20,000 damages. The porter left the employ of the Company some time ago, and his whereabouts are not now known. An opportunity was offered to settle the matter on a fair basis, but declined. Mrs. Campbell has a good case, and will probably get more than a settlement with the Company would have yielded.

What Kind of a Summer Vest is the O. h Thing? THE SUNDAY WORLD Tells.

WASHINGTON. May 18.—Attorney-General Miller doesn't play poker. He was one of the party who went down the river the other day to the lawyers' annual shad-bake at Marshall Hall and of course was invited to join in a little game and of course was invited to join in a little game of draw. The lawyers were surprised when the Attorney-General told them he had never played a game of poker. How different in this respect from his predecessor! Attorney-General Garland, in his testimony before the Fan-Electric Committee, on being asked if he had ever made any money while a United States Senator outside his Senatorial salary, promptly replied that he had. "I have made a little by practising law and a little at poker. Generally speaking. I made it at law and lost it at poker." This is a moral Administration.

Met Death in the Sand Drift. ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., May 18 .- A freight train going west Thursday encountered a tre-mendous sand drift in a small canyon near were:

CROSSAN, JAMES, will die.
CROSSAN, S. J., will die.
DIXON, W., head brakeman, killed.
Several other train hands were slightly in jured.

Six Incendiary Fires in Two Weeks. NORWALE, Conn., May 18 .- A large barn : Darien, owned by A. M. Gardner, of New York. was destroyed Thursday by a fire of incendiary origin. The loss is $4,000. A recently dis-charged farm-hand has been arrested on suspi-cion of having started the fire. This was the sixth incendiary fire in Darien in two weeks.

Brapycnoruxe will sure headache if from ver drinking.

PRETTY WIFE IN A FLAT.

Widow Bradhurst Now Comes Forward and Claims Her Share of Her Dead Husband's $250,000—He Married Her Two Years Ago, but for "Family Reasons" Kept It Secret-Contest in the Surregate's Court.

Revelations as to the Jekyll-Hyde life of jovial Thomas C. P. Bradhurst are the talk of Clubdom, and are likely to create more of a stir in the next few weeks.

Mr. Bradhurst was a well-known clubman and was a familiar figure in the Lotos, Knickerbocker and Manhattan Clubs. He was a handsome man and had a neat little fortune of a quarter of a million. His winning ways made him a favorite with women, and his hearty good-natured followship secred him a host of friends in club circles. In a word, Tom Bradhurst was regarded as make him happy. Well, he wasn't as much of a bachelor as he was supposed to be.

Since he died at his sister's residence. West Thirty-seventh street, a few weeks ago of heart disease the truth has come out.

For the past eight years it seems he ha had a very pretty woman in a handsome uptown flat, whom he bestowed his favors and time upon. Many an hour that his sister time upon. Many an hour that his sister thought was put in at the club was pleasantly whiled away by Bachelor Bradhurst in the company of his fascinating Lara.

While he was sick a fine-looking woman presented herself at his residence and demanded to see him. When asked who she was she calmly declared herself to be the wife of Tom Bradhurst. She was indignantly fired "and when she came to see her hus." fired," and when she came to see her hus-band's body after he had died she was simi-larly ejected. She did not attempt to attempt the funeral.

And yet she was Mrs. Thomas Pearsal eradhurst. The bachelor club man had lived with her for several years without any mar-riage ceremony, but two years ago he married

"Family reasons" prevented his marrying

"Family reasons" prevented his marrying her before, and 'family reasons" prevented his acknowledging her publicly as his wife after he had married her.

When Bradhurst's will was presented for probate, it was found that he enjoined his executors. Charles Field, his brother-in-law, and Abram Kling to invest such money as would yield an income of $8,000 which was to be bestowed upon Mrs. Lara F. Seaton. The will was made in 1884. A codicil revoked this, however, and said that as Mrs. Seaton was now the wife of testator, she should receive a sum of $10,000 in lieu of dower.

Then Mrs. Bradhurst kicked and contested the will on the ground of undue influence. The codicil was made during Bradhurst's ill-ness, after his wife had made her unsvalling ness, after his wite had made her unavailing effort to see him.

Mrs. Bradhurst is a charming, elegantly dressed woman of thirty-five, clear, olive complexion, dark brown hair and brown eyes. Her manners are refined and gracious. When she was nineteen she fell a victim to the loving ways of one Charles Beaton, with whom she lived unwedded for about two years. Then she discovered that he had a wife and tamily in the South and so she gave him the slip. him the slip.

Ten years ago she met Pearsail Bradhurst.

She told him her story and he believed it. He leved her and they lived together. He said he would marry her as soon as he could, which he did. There will be a fight over the will in the Surrogate's Court next week.

WANT THEIR PAY INCREASED.

Nearly Three Hundred 'Longshoremen Ge

Out on a Strike. About three hundred 'longshoremen employed in the Woodruff, Robinson, and Union stores in Brooklyn have struck for an increase of their pay from 20 cents to 25 cents an hour.

New men were hired in their places at the old New men were hired in their places at the old rate of 20 cents and the police of the Fifteenth Precinct protected them.

Some of the strikers waylaid a few of the alleged "scabs" and slugged them, but none of the latter were seriously injured.

New applicants for work are constantly seeking the bosses, but few of the number are able to do the heavy work.

The storekeepers say that trade is dull and but few men are needed to do their work.

The strike affects the pier bosses or storekeepers only. Longshoremen, engaged in loading and unloading steamers and sailing craft, receive 30 cents an hour.

PUT A TRAIN IN PERIL.

A Discharged Employee Charged with Mi placing a Switch.

William Sullivan, of 365.Grove street, Jersey City, was held for trial by Justice Stilling this morning, charged with a heinous offense. Sullivan was formerly employed as a labore on the Erie road and was discharged. He sought on the Erie road and was discharged. He sought vengeance on the Company, and before daylight Thursday morning insplaced a switch near the Grove street crossing, which would have wrecked the first train.

Two railroad men saw Sullivan turn the gwitch, and a warrant was sworn out for his ar-rest.

Amateur Baseball Notes

Somersets, 7; Eldridges, 1. Boston Juniors, 18; New York Juniors, 5. The Euphrates challenge the Buckeyes and he Pioneers. E. Stein, 208 Washington street, trooklyn.

Nassau Juniors challenge all clubs. J. L. Jef-erson, jr., 561 Court street, Brooklyn. Jonas, 10: Picked Nine, 8. Jonas, 9: Onecos, 0. Three good players want to join a nine under ifteen years. A. Alenin, 717 Sixth avenue.

Cuckoos, 27; Gormans, 5. Niagara Juniors challenge clubs under fifteer Devine, 487 East Twelfth street. Jefferson Athletics, 8; Electrics, 3. Early Birds challenge all clubs under fou

A battery wishes to join a uniformed club under seventeen. F. Smith, 364 East Fourth treet.

Bayards, 9; Motts, 7. New York University Freshmen, 22; New York University Sophomores, 12, A good player would like to join a club under fifteen. C. S. Epstein, 54 Norfolk street. Gothams challenge all clubs under twenty-Engles of Harlem challenge clubs unde fitteen years. J. Magnus, 192 East Seventy sixth street. The Newarks play the colored Gorhams Ridgewood Bunday,

The Nadly Club players averaging twenty-one cars, will play out-of-town clubs having included grounds. Memorial Day desired. H. R. Thompson, 44 Clinton street, Brooklyn.

Baseball at Ridgewood To-Morrow Newanes vs. Coloned Gornams, 3.30 P.M. 3

A New Theory Advanced to Prove that Bishop Was Dead.

Inclosed in an Air-Tight Casket for One Hour.

Dr. Robinson Says That Would Kill the Mind-Reader.

A new point in the case of Washington Irving Bishop's autopsy was developed to-day by the fact that for one hour before the autopsy took place the mind-reader's body was incased in an air-tight casket. This, it was claimed by many, would be sufficient to cause death, even if he were in a Justice trance, and the accused physicians, Drs. Irwin, Ferguson and Hance, feel somewhat relieved at this discovery The gentleman in charge of Hawk's undertaking establishment, where the mind-reader's body now lies, informed an Evenino WORLD reporter this morning that Bishop's body was brought there in an air-tight casket about 3 o'clock last Monday afternoon.

"Could any air get into the coffin?" asked

"Could any air get into the coffin?" asked the raporter.

'Yes," came the reply, rather hesitatingly.

'There is a small hinged lid, about six inches square, in the centre of the coffin, and a modicum of air could get in through there."

'How long could a healthy man live in that coffin with the lid screwed down?"

'About fifteen minutes, but I would hate to be in it as long as that even. A man would be nearly dead after that length of time."

'How long was Bishop shut up in it before the doctors made the autopsy?" asked The Evento World representative.

'About an hour."

Evening World representative,
"About an hour,"
"Then, even if he was only in a cataleptic trance when removed from the Lamb's Club, you think he would have been smothered by the time his body was taken out of the coffin here, where the doctors performed the autopsy?"
"Undoubtedly," replied the gentleman, "although that never occurred to me be-although that never occurred to me be-ore. That surely settles all doubt about ishop being alive or dead when the autopsy as made.

S. Robertson, of 28 East Twentieth street, one of the most eminent physicians in town. When the reporter explained how long B shop had been in the coffin he declared romptly:
'Well, that surely settles all doubt as to coffin such as you describe for ten minutes. When you take into consideration Bishop's condition, I am sure that eyen if he were condition, I am sure that even if he were only in a cataleptic france when put in the coffin at the Lomb's Club, he must have been anothered before arriving at the undertaker's shop.

"Air is just as necessary to a man in a trance as to a healthy man.

"I attended Bisnop professionally from the da e of his return, after ten years sojourn in Europe in 1886 until he left the city again 1887."

He was morbidly afraid that some time

"He was morbidly afraid that some time he would be cut open alive when in a cataleptic trance. He has often told me that he told every physician who ever a tended him not to cut him open after death."

"Do you think he was really dead when placed in the coffin in the Lambs' Club or only in a trance?" asked the reporter.

Dr. Roberison recused to discuss that question or to say anything concerning Dr. Irwin's action beyond the simple statement:

"I think that the autopsy was performed in too much of a hurry. I would never hold an autopsy in less than twelve hours," he declared.

clared.
On the other hand, it is claimed by scien-On the other hand, it is claimed by scientists that a person in a trance has no need of air, as all animation is suspended; that if Bishop needed air he must have been able to breathe, and it would be ridiculous to suppose that the physicians who made the autopsy would do so while the person was breathing.

-A CARGO OF BLOODHOUNDS.

of Them Shipped to Troy Narrowly Escape Being Sold.

Nine bloodhounds of various degrees of savageness were consigned to Albany on the Troy grown-up dogs would give to the babies lessons in baying.

They were anchored among the boats in the hold and the tramps and bums who took a drygoods box for a stateroom on that trip up the river, had a dreadful time. The dogs were awake all night and barked every two minutes. When they got to Albany no body seemed to hanker after the savage brutes. They delayed the boat half an hour, but no one came, so they took them on to Troy and left them there. When the Saratogs got back to New York, Mr. Lewis, the baggage agent, put an "ad" in the paper for the owner to appear and claim his property.

Kit Clarke Writes Where Salt-Water Fish Abound SUNDAY WORLD.

She Had a Toothoome Arm.

STANDISH, Mich, May 18.—S. R. Hoobler, of Saganing, has run away, and is supposed to be a wanderer in the forest. The reason lies in the fact that a warrant is out for his arrest for biting and otherwise hurting the arm of Mrs. McCarthy, of Saganing. It is an odd case and attracts general attention. Hoobler is a State Representative, and his friends are at a loss to second for his action.

There Is No Other House hat will sell you Furniture, Carpeta, Hadding, Gente' Jothing, Ladies' Cloaks, Wraps, Silks, Velvets, all tinds of Dry Goods at Cash Prices and give you Credit Exely, 203 6th ave., near 17th st.

Colorlo.

2 O'CLOCK.

Little Alice Graham Freed from Autocrat Gerry's Grasp.

Justice in the Case. The Society Had to Abandon Its

Administers Prompt

Duffy

Outrageous Claim. Joy of the Broken-Hearted Mother on Getting Her Child.

An Affecting Scene at the J fferson Market Court This Morning.

AN INJUSTICE QUICKLY RIGHTED. Little Alice Graham is back in the arof her leving mother! Mr. Gerry has been taught another on. An outraged public sentiment sets a limit even to the Atrocities of an Autocrat. Portunate it was that the grip of Mr. Gerry's Society had not been securely fastned upon this poor child at least. There was too much of human sympathy and com-mon sense about Judge Patrick Gavan Duffy. He refused to irrevocably tour little Alice from her affectionate mother Gerry's lustitution.

As for Agent Burlando, he is a brute. He a blasphemer. Mr. Gerry, another word to you. How long do you propose to emloy a man of this stamp as an agent for Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to

But little Allee Graham, at any rate, le safe; and the knowledge of a good deed quickly done is ample recompense to "The Evening World."—(ED. Dictator Gerry, of the Society for the Promotion of Legalized Kidnapping, received a black eye in Jefferson Market Police Court his morning that must have made his head It was in the case of pretty little Alice Graam, who was brutally torn from her home at 272 West Twenty-fifth street last Wednes lay afternoon by Agent Burlando, one of Gerry's agents, and has ever since been kept away from her almost heart-broken mother. Justice Duffy gave Alice back to her mother s soon as he heard the case, and Mr. Gerry was acen just about that time leaving the Court-House by the back door.

The eramination in this case, which has aroused such a storm of public indignation against the methods of Mr. Gerry's Society, had been set down for 9 o'clock.

THE MOTHER IN COURT.

Mrs. Graham was in court long before that hour, with about a dozen of her friends, including motherly old Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Benton Russ, Mrs. Graham's stepmother, who had come on from Washington; Mrs. Dupont and Miss Grace Dupont, intimate friends.

The unfortunate mother looked pale and careworn. She had borne up bravely under the strain of the past three days, but yesterday while visiting the house of Mrs. Dupont she was taken ill, and for a time was completely prostrated.

She was hardly able to come to Court this morning, but a hungry, yearning look in her eyes showed that she was ready to go through any ordeal for the sake of getting back her child again.

Alice was brought into the Judge's private Alice was brought into the Judge's private soom by the Society's officers about 9 o'clock. Mrs. Graham requested to be permitted to see her, and appealed to Agent Burlando.

'Yes, you can talk to her if you promise not to have no funny business with her," was the reply of the Society's agent.

MORE BRUTALITY. As the poor woman reached the door he

As the poor added:

"Now, mind you don't have no crying business. Everything's got to be on the dead level, see!"

Alice was brought from another room. She had evidently been crying, and when the door was opened and she saw her mother she rushed into her arms with a cry of delight.
They were left together about ten minutes when the officer went in and said Alice must go tack into the other room. The poor child wept bitterly as she was being taken away, and called out piteously:

WANTED TO STAY WITH MAMMA. "I want to stay with my mamma. Oh, please let me go back to mamma. Don't take me away again."

The affecting scene brought tears to the eyes of many of the spectators, and even one of the old court officers who had been hard-of the old court officers who had been hard-ened by years of experience to all sorts of harrowing scenes rubbed his nose with sus-pictous empha-is.

It's a shame," he said, '' to treat that poor young weman in that way. They ought never to have taken her child away. Any one with half an eye could see that she would do more for that child than any one in the world."

MRS. GRAHAM MUCH AFFECTED. Mrs. Graham was also much affected by th

Mrs. Graham was also much affected by the interview, although she was quiet and self-possessed every ory of the child as she was being taken away made her tremble from head to foot.

"When they took Alice away," she said to the reporter. "she had on her old clothes. The child tells me that they gave her new underclothing this morning and another hood, and wrapped her other clothes up in the bundle which you saw she carried. Is uppose that is to make it appear that she suppose that is to make it appear that she wasn't well clothed.

WOULDN'T GO WITH HER FATHER. "Alice told me that they brought her father to see her while she was at the Society's office, and saked her if she didn't want to go # bome with him. He tried to induce her to go with him too. "When I asked her what she replied to this she answered immediately: "I told them that I didn't want to go to anybody but to you, mamma." ARTFULLY COURCED.

"From what I could learn from her they tried very hard to persuade her that it would be best for her to go with her falher. Heaven knows what object they had in trying to get her away from me. for I have supported her and cared for her all these six yea s, and I know she loves me be ter than any one else."

two years ago, and only threw up her en-gapement that she might be able to be more with her child. ENTER AUTOCRAT GERRY.

where he consulted with Charles W. Brooke, Mrs. Graham's lawyer.

Then he came out looking worried and came up to a group of reporters.

So this is the press, is it?" he inquired, with a bland smile. "What paper do you represent?" he asked.
"THE EVENING WORLD." was the stolid reply of the person addressed.
"Oh—ah—yes, and your's is the—?" turning to snother. turning to another.
"THE EVENING WORLD."

Gerry was beginning to get demoralized.

'Isn'tthere a Herald man here?" he asked.

'What paper are you from?" he asked a third. "THE EVENING WORLD."

right out straight. JUSTICE DUFFY THERE. Judge Duffy took his desk in his private office a moment alterward and Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Ruis came in and stool before it. Mr. Gerry was at one side with J. H. Graham, the former's husband, and Mr. Brooke at the PLACED AT JUDGE DUFFY'S SIDE. "Don't cry, my little lady," said Judge Duffy in a fatherly manner. "Come sit down here beside me," and he put his arm around the little one. She stopped crying and smiled at her mother.

MR. ORRET'S LAME EXCUSE.

Mr. Gerry then made a statement of his side of the case. He claimed that the complaints of cruedy towards the child had been made by a reputable citizens. He had sent Burlando to investigate it, and the investigation consisted in seeing the complainant's wife and another woman, who corroborated the story.

wife and another woman, who corroborated the story.

The lame part of his effort was the fact that he did not claim that Burlands saw or talked with any one of the mither's friends, for they were right there in court to prove that he had insuited them brutally when they tried to explain why the child was shut up.

Mrs. Granam came forward and denied that she was out of the bonse from 7 in the morn-ing till 7 at night, as Mr. Gerry stated, and said she had good reasons for locking her in. BACKING WATER.

who was sworn.

He is a course looking man, of stout build, the decree was granted, but said he might look into the matter later. I haven't seen improper person to have charge of her.

JUDGE DUFFY SETTLES IT. This settled the matter, and Judge Duffy directed that the child should be returned to the mother temporarily, while the father could bring proceedings in the Suprema Court if he wished to establish his claim to

A Nation of Tattooed Men-Frank G. Car-

THE SAMOAN CONFERENCE.

Ita Labora About Over-A Government Scheme Practically Adopted. [BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.] Bealin, May 18.—The Nationale Zeitung de-clares that the Samoan Conference has agreed the form of a native government for the isl-

THE UMBRIA STILL IN IT. She Makes Another Flying Trip Acress the

PRECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLS LONDON, May 18.—The steamship Umbria bassed Brow Head last night, six days and three hours after leaving New York.

INY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION. LONDON, May 18.—The steamer Emiliane om New Orleans to Liverpool, put into Queenstown this morning with her cargo of coton on fire.

Nhe had sent ashore for assistance, and will syrobably have to discharge most of her cargo in order to extinguish the fire.

Don't Imitate " Guida's" Bad Manners

TRUSSELL HAS FLED,

A Fact Mourned $30,000 Worth by

His "Patent Ice" Causes a Sufficiently Cold Day for Eastern Capitalists.

Two Wives Left by the Inventor and a Third Woman Taken Along.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. BOSTON, May 18.—Habitues of the Sherman House, and, in fact, frequenters of Court Square generally, have during the past six or eight months became pretty well acquainted with Wilbert C. Trussell. He never succeeded in making himself opular, however, despite his lavish expenditure of money.

at times. In the first place, there was wife No. 1, who never called at the hotel, but who says she

Then there was No. 3, not really a wife, hough she has frequently been so registered at various hotels in Boston, New York and House he hadn't much money, but he had an invention.

There were "millions in it!"

He could make a substitute for ice in such a way as to keep an ordinary family refrigerator cool for six months, and all for sixty cents!

Ten cents a month for ice for a whole family!

That's what Trussell said and he made.

shares.
At first he sold no stock.
Boston people bite cautiously, but after they do bite they hold on gamely.
Trussell got short of funds.
One of his friends let him have $250 and

The inventor began to frequent the bar more than before, although he was never a poor customer.

One day his bill at the bar was $35; his carriage bill the same day was $15. He "treated" handsomely and flung money about lavishly.

These were also flush times for Fannie Adams, a sharp, good-looking and plausible person of thirty-five or forty.

For a couple of years past Trussell has been this woman's devoted admirer. He installed her in comfortable quarters, and always dressed her well; but when money began pouring in, he fairly lavished it upon her.

He finally established her in the Sherman House in a suite of rooms on the second floor at $28 per week, without board, while a single room with two beds in it was good enough for Mrs. Trussell and the children.

This woman joined the Trussells at their meals, made one in all theatre and carriage parties, and, veritably, was clothed in purple and fine linen and fared amptuously every day.

timate relations with the Adams, and his wife could only be appeased by the removal from the house of the fascinating Faunic. Trassell claimed to have been experiment-ing for three years, and it was about Christ-fected his freezer.

Several women were among the purchasers of stock. Some paid $10 a share, some $40, others $60, and a few as high as $70.

One West End business man says that he owns $18,000 worth o stock.

A prominent ice firm in Gardiner, Me., invested $20,000 " for an insurance," as they termed it, 'in case the new invention should knock the bottom out of the ice business."

should knock the bottom out of the ice business."

Among those who have invested more or less heavily are:
Dennis W. Clark, Portland, Me.; Ashabel Chaplin. Portland, Me.; David Deunis, President of the Gardiner National Bank, Gardiner, Me.; the Clark & Chaplin Ice Co., Portland, Me.; Elisha E. Clark, Boston: Frank W. Morrill, Boston, and many others of this city and Philadelphia.
On Tuesday afternoon Trussell entered the Sherman House office, paid his bill and ordered a carriage and an express wagon.

His trunks and boxes were sent to the Boston and Maine depot, and thither followed the carriage with Mr. and Mrs. Trussell and the children.

Trussell remarked to the hotel clerk, on going out, that they were about to pay a short visit to his wife's father, at Newton, N. H.

It now appears that Trussell saw his family afely off on the 5 o'clock train for Newton, and then quietly slipped away in company with the facunating Fannie on the 7 o'clock train for Montreal.

The principal stockholders claim that Trus-

The principal stockholders claim that Trussell has not carried away much of their money, but that their funds have been paid into the treasury.

It is known, however, that two gentlement have paid him $10,000 each within a few days and that others have given him sums ranging from $1,000 to $5,000, which render it likely that Trussell carried away with him some $30,000. Mrs. Adams, his mistress, was a familiar-

Her hair was of a handsome iron gray, and altogether she was a most attractive per Paris Express Train Wrecked.

[BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.]

[BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.] PARIS, May 18.—Felix Pyatt, the well-known Radical, and member of the Chamber of Deputies, is seriously ill, and at his advanced agridupt is felt of his recovery.

Lady Stecklerites' Turn To-Night. The Steckler Association will open the new club-house at 122 Second avenue for the recep-tion of the ladies to-night.

The reporter then called upon Dr. Thomas whether Bishop was alive when the autopsy was performed."

"A man in gaod health could not live in a

Did your ever attend him m a cataleptic

"Did your ever attend him in a cataleptic trance?" was asked.

"I did on two occasions. The first time was after I had performed a difficult operation on him. He dropped right off in a trance. I thought he was dead.

"For five hours I worked over him, although I fully believed he was dead; but something impelled me to continue my endeavors to restore him to life. At the end of five hours he opened his eyes and regained possession of his senses.

"The second time he came in here to see me, and while talking to me dropped off again. He lay in a trance that time for three hours before I brought him to."

hours before I brought him to."

'Did he ever say anything to you about dissection after death?.

'Frequently. He had a horror of it. It was a hobby with him. 'Don't, don't ever cut me up when I die,' he has often said to PARTY who sent nine bloodhounds by a samer Sara-togs Sunday, May 12, must claim them or they will be sold. Troy Line, pler 46 N. R.

steamer Baratoga. Some of them were young and not much good on a trail, but the e pupples yelped, roared and whooped it up for all they were worth, and the grown-up dogs would give to the babies lessons property.

While the boy was taking the "ad" to the paper, the man showed up and said he would attend to them.

Mrs. Graham showed the reporter a tole-gram which she recived from Manager Au-gustin Daiv this morning. He said in it that he had written letters both to President Gerry and Judge Duffy expressing the warmest sympathy for her in her misfortune, and saking if there was any thing else that he could possibly do for her. Mrs. Graham was a member of his company two years ago, and only threw up her en-

AUGUSTIN DALY'S SYMPATRY.

Mr. Gerry came into the court-room about Mr. Gerry came into the court-room about 9.30 and immediately took possession of the entire space behind the Judge's bench, according to his usual and well-known fashion. The business of the Court was stopped while he held a lengthy whispered conversation with Judge Duffy. The latter listened with wrinkled brow to the words of Mr. Gerry but said little. Now and then he corrugated his brow more deeply and shook his head vigorously, while Mr. Gerry became more confidential and presumably more eloquent. At last Mr. Gerry got up looking very tired, and with a frown went into the back room, where he consulted with Charles W. Brooke,

SURPRISES FOR MB, GERRY,

This settled Mr. Gerry. He thought it was a put-up job and rushed out of the room with his face ablaze and his black hair standing

As soon as Alice saw her mother she cried to go to her, and the tears streamed down

Mr. Gerry then said that the Society did not propose to press its claim for the custody of the child on the ground of crueity, but wanted to keep it until the courte could decide whether the mother or father was entitled to it. He then brought up the father, who was worn.

He is a course looking man, of stout build, with an enormous red monstache. He seemed to be very ill at ease and never once looked at his wife.

"What right have you to the custody of this chi'd?" asked Judge Duffy.

"By this decree of divorce." he said, and he produced a copy of the instrument signed by a Washington judge.

Lawyer Brooke looked at it and said:
"There is nothing here but a judgment for a separation. It says nothing about the custody of the child."

"Well, Judge James told me he would not disturb the custody of the child at the time the decree was granted, but said he might

Mrs. Luss then stated that Graham's counsel in that suit had come to berself and her husband and personally informed them that the Court had refused to take Alice away from her mother because the father was an

penter in THE SUNDAY WORLD.

ands.

A plenary meeting will be held on Tuesday, which will probably be the last.

It is said that by a scheme practically adopted the general government of the islands will be in the divided control of Germany and the United States, their differences to be adjusted by an English arbiter.

The Emiliane's Cargo on Fire

After Reading THE SUNDAY WORLD.

Duped Investors.

He was married so much as to be worried never called at the hotel, but who says she never was divorced, and who now resides at Hamilton, Mass., and goes out nursing, thus earning her own living.

Then there was wife No. 2, a rather illiter ate weman, the mother of Trussell's two children—fair-haired little creatures, who played with their dolls and pig puzzles is Room 12, and who often went to walk on the Providence.

Thus it will be seen that Wilbert C. Trussell was a considerably married man.
When he first appeared at the Sherman House he hadn't much money, but he had as

That's what Trussell said, and he made others believe it, too.

He got up a stock company, organized it under the Maine laws and began to dispose of got in return 200 shares of stocks. Then, one by one, the fish were hooked, played and landed.

The inventor began to frequent the bar more than before, although he was never a every day.

Things soon got mixed, however.

Trussell was discovered one day in too inas time that be announced that he had perfected his freezer.

figure around town.

She dresses in deep mourning with a long crepe veil awaeping to the hem of her gar-Paurs, May 18, -The express train from Boulogne, filled with visitors for the Exhibition, track in a tunuel. No one was killed, but there was a panic and it took two hours to extricate the train. including a number of Americans, ran off the

while or the Kriches" is the name of the best

GIVEN A GREAT FUNERAL. LAST SEEN AT THE STATION. BRADHURST'S DOUBLE LIFE. WAS HE SMOTHERED? ALLEN THORNDIKE RICE'S REQUIEM AT THE TICKET AGENT SAYS MISS TOBIN A BACHELOR IDOL OF CLUBDOM WITH A

Although the Staten Island authorities have now as they were when they began.

Through a bungling mistake in the first autopsy it was found necessary to examine the young woman again, and another autopsy has occi made. When the first examination was made the physicians confined their search for traces of malpractice or assault.

The theory that Miss Tobin was robbed before entering the water has found many believers and some new facts which came out last night go far towards substantiating that theory.

Mrs. Mary T. McKinney, who was one of Miss Tobin's warmest friends, testified concerning the dead girl's movements prior to April 15 and said that she knew she was engaged to Dr. Bryan.

Bryan.

'I knew her to carry a small case attached to a gnard which was worn around her neck inside her waist, "said Mrs. McKinney.

'I te ontained a photograph of Dr. Bryan, her money, and her name and address. She always carried it with her."

When the body was discovered there was nothing found on her except her jewalry, consisting of a ring and breastpin, and an Episcopal prayer-book. Locked up in her bosom, as Mrs. Mc. Kinney asserts, it would be difficult indeed for it to slip out.

STABBED BY HIS PLAYMATE.

honors with any one. He tout his testile the incident.

After school the boys met to settle the question, and during the méles Moore drew his sixter's kuife and stabbed Hill in the left leg.

The detective was about to arrest Moore, when the mother's pleas so aroused Mr. Hill's pity that he withdrew the charge after giving the young reprobate a wholesome piece of advice.

Hill will be entirely well in a few day:

See THE SUNDAY WORLD. She Will Probably Get More Money. SIOUX CITY, Ia., May 18.—Mrs. Jennie Camp

This Is a Moral Administration ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD. ]

Houck's Tank, and the engine and ten cars were ditched. The killed and fatally injured

a jolly good bachelor who had everything to